

Forecasting potential threats

AI detects weapons, fire, crowd gatherings, and conflicts — recognizing threats before an incident occurs.

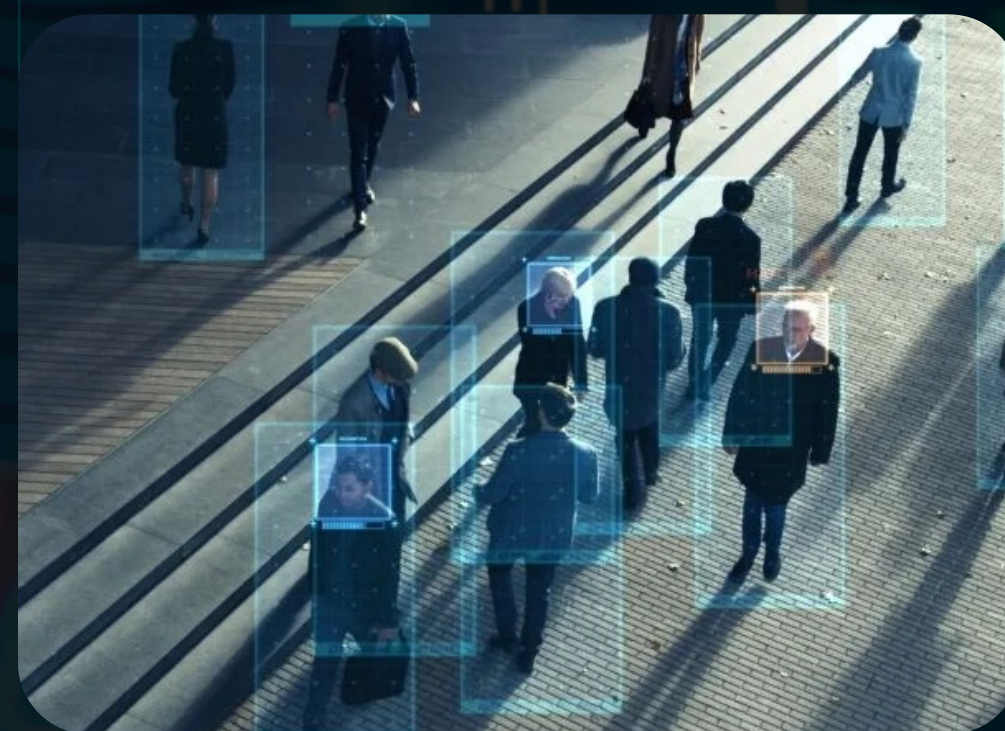

Automatic access blocking

The system instantly restricts access when a risk is detected.

Evidence collection

Recording and storing data for further analysis and investigation

Integration with emergency services

Instant interaction with security and emergency services

